

Appearance

The scheme uses local vernacular materials of red brick, the herring and bone roof boarding to create a risk reduced environment that merges into the village landscape.

The proposals are for a traditional pitched roof and gabled forms using the local materials to help the scheme integrate in to the village.

Commercial development east of the proposed site

Older buildings along Camp Hill

Newark Close

Dark Weatherboard

Plain Red Bricks

Red Brick

Slate Tile

Isolated forms with the herring and bone pitched brick in Tordridge Road

Modern development in Dulles Wood

Recent development along High Street

Proposed row of four showcasing retained fabric, using traditional materials and building forms

TONBRIDGE ROAD, CHIDDINGSTONE

